Farmer's wife:  Ducks and geese:  Farmer's wife:  Ducks and geese: etc.

Come home all my ducks and geese! No we won't! Why not? 'Cause not!

What's wrong? It's the wolf! Where's he hiding? In the woods!

Do ing what? Washing! Where's he washing? By the little river!

What's he dry his hands on? On a pussy cat's tail!

Game Directions
One child (the wolf) hides. Another child (the farmer or farmer's wife) stands facing a line of the other children (ducks and geese). Lines sung alternatively as indicated above. At the end of the song, the ducks and geese run toward the farmer or farmer's wife to a designated "safe zone" while the wolf rushes out and tries to capture one.
